

Weekly Quiz

1. The 80th anniversary of which major event was marked across the UK last week?
 - a. Battle of Britain
 - b. Battle of the Somme
 - c. Battle of Waterloo
2. Spain's largest city has seen large protests from residents in poorer areas due to renewed restrictions on movement and gatherings. What is the largest city in Spain?
 - a. Valencia
 - b. Barcelona
 - c. Madrid
3. Why has the HSBC bank been in the news over the last week?
 - a. Their share price has fallen dramatically
 - b. They have taken over a rival bank
 - c. They are planning to change their name
4. What was the name of the hurricane that recently caused widespread damage along the east coast of the United States?
 - a. Hurricane Amy
 - b. Hurricane Betty
 - c. Hurricane Sally
5. Which of the following food brands plans to change its name due its current cultural inappropriateness?
 - a. Ben and Jerry's (ice cream)
 - b. Uncle Ben's (rice)
 - c. Wagamama (restaurant chain)
6. Which member of the Royal Family has just announced that they are pregnant?
 - a. The Duchess of Cambridge
 - b. Princess Eugenie
 - c. Princess Beatrice
7. What was unusual about the 2020 Emmy Awards held recently?
 - a. It was decided that no show deserved the Best Comedy Award
 - b. The award for Best Drama Series was given jointly to three shows
 - c. The awards show was recorded without an audience
8. According to recent research, Antarctica's melting ice shelves over the past 25 years have produced enough water to ...?
 - a. Fill a 2 metre deep pool the size of Scotland
 - b. Fill the Grand Canyon
 - c. Fill Loch Ness 2,000,000 times
9. Who is the BBC's highest paid presenter according to the list they published recently?
 - a. Zoe Ball (Radio)
 - b. Gary Lineker (Football)
 - c. Graham Norton (Television)
10. In which Asian country could you visit the large city of Osaka?
 - a. Japan
 - b. South Korea
 - c. China
11. Which UK political party recently unveiled the new slogan "A new leadership"?
 - a. Conservative Party
 - b. Labour Party
 - c. Liberal Democrats
12. On which island was a large rescue operation launched when a mass stranding of around 500 pilot whales occurred in an isolated harbour last week?
 - a. Madagascar
 - b. Sicily
 - c. Tasmania
13. Which British personality has just broken the record for the fastest time to reach a million followers on Instagram?
 - a. Ed Sheeran
 - b. Alesha Dixon
 - c. David Attenborough
14. Which person from history is famous for the 'I Have a Dream' speech?
 - a. Nelson Mandela
 - b. Martin Luther King Jr
 - c. Mahatma Gandhi
15. Why did a Spanish triathlete competing in the 2020 Santander Triathlon make the news last week?
 - a. he tried to cheat by catching a bus during the running section
 - b. he gave up third place by letting a runner who went the wrong way go past him again
 - c. He held on to win despite riding with two flat tyres on the last cycle lap

Weekly Quiz - Visual

What is the name of the world's most smuggled animal that is shown here?

- a. Armadillo
- b. Mongoose
- c. Pangolin

1

2

What is the last name of this UK politician?

- a. Sunak
- b. Khan
- c. Raab

In which country would you find this landmark?

3

4

Which country has this flag?

5

Who is represented by this news-making statue in Slovenia?

- a. Princess Diana
- b. Melania Trump
- c. Angelina Jolie

